

What is a rusting truck?

A beast sitting idle,
awaiting the return of their owner,
an iron brute, slowly flaking away.

Animals take shelter in the rotting
hulk of a vehicle

Silently playing through memories
of long, mountain roads.

Shattered glass lying undisturbed
in the underbrush.

or heavily rain banging the dented
doors.

It looms, silent and alone forever.

That is a rusting truck
